THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY is celebrated on 6th January. (Not a Holyday of obligation this year) This feast is also called Little Christmas and Women's Christmas. Women get a break from housework on this day and it is done by the men. The word "Epiphany" means proclamation. Jesus Christ was proclaimed Saviour of the world. The Three Kings arrived from the East to honour the Infant Jesus. They represented the Gentiles and were directed by a star to Bethlehem. They knew that a King was born who deserved homage and respect. They knelt to worship Him and offered Him precious gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. They returned home a different way disregarding Herod's request. If we follow Jesus Christ, we will reach Heaven. May God guide us and set us on the right course. Amen. Masses will be on the Parish radio 101.4fm and Facebook page Shrule Parish on Wednesday. Glencorrib @ 10am & Shrule @ 11am

JANUARY 2021: May faith direct us, Hope inspire us, Love connect us and God Protect Us. Amen.

I think when the dust settles, we will realize how little we need, how much we have, and the true value of human friendship

Marry the one who gives you the same feeling you get when you see your food coming at a restaurant.

JUST A THOUGHT - IN MEMORIAM – RING OUT WILD BELLS

One hundred and seventy years ago in a world plagued by cholera epidemics, Alfred Lord Tennyson wrote "Ring out old shapes of foul disease". Could he ever have guessed that his words would ring so true this New Year. Like him, this past year has left us with much to mourn and grieve, much to unburden ourselves of, and leave behind. We also see the light of hope, green shoots and the promise of better times ahead as we embrace a New Year. Right up there are the vaccines that may take us to safer, healthier times. We are on the final straight of a gruelling race, let's not slip up now. Remain vigilant, that we may see happier times and celebrate with loved ones once again as before. Happy New Year!

In Memoriam, [Ring out, wild bells] Alfred Lord Tennyson - 1809-1892

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light:
The year is dying in the night;
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow:
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

Ring out the grief that saps the mind
For those that here we see no more;
Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
Ring in redress to all mankind.

Ring out a slowly dying cause,
And ancient forms of party strife;
Ring in the nobler modes of life,
With sweeter manners, purer laws.

Ring out the want, the care, the sin,
The faithless coldness of the times;
Ring out, ring out my mournful rhymes
But ring the fuller minstrel in.

Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The civic slander and the spite;
Ring in the love of truth and right,
Ring in the common love of good.

Ring out old shapes of foul disease;
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
Ring out the thousand wars of old,
Ring in the thousand years of peace.

Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be.

SHRULE PARISH is committed to the protection of all children and young people in our Church. Please see our notice boards for contact details.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

JUST A LITTLE DONKEY

Just a little donkey,
but on my back I bore
The one and only Saviour
the world was waiting for.
Just a little donkey,
but I was strong and proud—
I gladly carried Mary
through the chaos of the crowd.
I brought her to a stable
where she made a tiny bed...
A place for Baby Jesus
to lay His little head.
I pray the world remembers
that special Christmas night
When just a little donkey carried Heaven's Precious Light.
By Rita Beer

TWO DONKEYS

were talking
in Jerusalem,
when one
donkey says
to the other.
"Just
yesterday I was here
carrying Jesus
and the people were singing and shouting and throwing down their clothes for me to walk on, and today they don't even recognise me".
The other donkey replied, "That's how it is my friend..... Without Jesus you are nothing

MASS DURING LEVEL 5

will once again be celebrated without a congregation. We will revert to what has become the default. All Masses on the parish radio and at weekend of Parish Facebook page.

NEW YEAR WISHES:

Fr. Vivian wishes all the people of the parish the blessing of peace, health, love & happiness for the New Year. A special word of sympathy to those who have lost a loved one during the year.

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOUR

A man from Dalgan was making some pancakes for his two young sons when the boys began arguing over who would get the first pancake. Their mother saw the opportunity for a moral lesson. "If Jesus were sitting here, "she told them, "He would say, 'Let my brother have the first pancake, I can wait.'" The younger boy turned to his brother and said "You be Jesus."

REMEMBER BACK when we used to eat cake after someone blew all over it? Man, we were wild...

PLEASE REMEMBER WITH A PRAYER

all those in hospital, those waiting for test results and operations, all those undergoing procedures and operations. Please also remember all those in nursing homes or living alone in their own homes. Lord Jesus, friend of the sick, console those who are unwell, restore them to health and bless all who are with them and care for them.

JUST A THOUGHT

A member of the church, who previously had been attending services regularly, stopped going. After a few weeks, the pastor decided to visit him. It was a chilly evening. The pastor found the man at home alone, sitting before a blazing fire. Guessing the reason for his pastor's visit, the man welcomed him, led him to a comfortable chair near the fireplace and waited. The pastor made himself at home but said nothing. In the grave silence, he contemplated the dance of the flames around the burning logs. After some minutes, the pastor took the fire tongs, carefully picked up a brightly burning ember and placed it to one side of the hearth all alone then he sat back in his chair, still silent. The host watched all this in quiet contemplation. As the one lone ember's flame flickered and diminished, there was a momentary glow and then its fire was no more. Soon it was cold and dead. Not a word had been spoken since the initial greeting. The pastor glanced at his watch and realized it was time to leave. He slowly stood up, picked up the cold, dead ember and placed it back in the middle of the fire. Immediately it began to glow, once more with the light and warmth of the burning coals around it. As the pastor reached the door to leave, his host said with a tear running down his cheek, 'Thank you so much for your visit and especially for the fiery sermon. I will be back in church next Sunday.' We live in a world today, which tries to say too much with too little. Consequently, few listen. Sometimes the best sermons are the ones left unspoken.

GOOD MORNING

Friends.

One day, all of us will get separated from each other. We will miss our conversations of everything and the dreams we had. Days, months and years will pass until we rarely see each other. One day, our children will see our photos and ask, "Who are these people?" And we will smile with invisible tears and say, "It was with them that I had the best days of my life."
